What Did You Do Today?

Sent to the Java Journal from a local recovering alcoholic. Copyright unknown

So you've been around for many years, helping to spread AA

You've worked like hell since you first came in but what did you do today!

I heard your pitch, it was kind of long, you really told them how

You worked the steps in '81 but how are you working them now?

Do you still get up from your soft warm bed when someone is in trouble?

Do you grab your hat and your AA book and get there on the double?

Or have you forgotten the early times, when you were sort of new.

Maybe you've been around so long that AA is old hat to you.

Maybe you're one of the Senior Saints, Sober and satisfied, and you've forgotten when you were sick and when you damn near died?

Maybe I shouldn't bring it up, maybe you're too blasé.

But just for the hell of it Mister what did you do today?

Have you been around so cock-eyed long you leave it to Harry, Betty or Sam

Because you're not your brother's keeper and just don't give a damn?

Maybe tonight the fights are on or you're going to the old ball game.

So what the hell if the guy is sick he has only himself to blame.

Well, Mister, you have a perfect right to work your own AA and you know you'll do it your way no matter what I say.

But tonight before you go to bed just look in the glass and pray that you and GOD know the answer to WHAT DID YOU DO TODAY!

The old Timer that gave me this was my Dad, not long before he died--Sober.

Thanks for letting me share this with you and tonight I'm going to a meeting.

Love in the Fellowship,
Maggie

Suggested Topics For Discussion Meetings

Reprinted with permission from the General Service Office from the "Suggested Topics for Discussion Meetings" pamphlet.

GENERAL IDEAS

1. The Twelve Steps. Some groups discuss one Step a week. If there is a new-comer attending for the first time, the group may change the topic to focus on the first three Steps.

2. The Twelve Traditions. Following the conclusion of the Step meetings, some groups will discuss the Traditions so that, every thirteenth meeting the group focuses on a Tradition.

3. The Big Book, Alcoholics Anonymous. Some groups discuss one chapter from the Big Book each week. Other groups read from the Big Book weekly and discuss each chapter as they go along.

4. Readings from 'As Bill Sees It' can inspire sharing on discussion topics.

5. Living Sober also has many topics used by groups.

6. Some A.A. slogans can be

News on the District 4 Central Office Move

The move is getting closer. Packing and inventory starts at 10:00 a.m., Saturday, October 20 at the office located at 8390 Gage Blvd., Suite 202. On the same date and time, furniture is being moved into our new office space at 102 E. Kennewick Ave. (Alano Club). Moving and unpacking will begin on Saturday, October 27, @ 10:00 a.m. in our new office space.

Anyone wanting to help, meet us at those locations on the dates and times listed. Our new office at the Alano Club is located upstairs above the cafe. This new office space has its own side entrance on the south side of the building. You can enter the office through that entrance or through the cafe, but only during their hours of operation.

The central office is located conveniently to help carry the message of Alcoholics

Anonymous to the still suffering alcoholic. Our new office houses conference-approved AA literature from GSO, some non-conference approved literature including the Grapevine, birthday medallions, current meeting schedules, fliers and information for upcoming events. It also provides a meeting space for the monthly Central Office Committee and other committees like: PI/CPC, Corrections, Hospitals, Phone Committee, and Special Events Committee, and has a great cup of coffee.

As a start, we will keep the current office hours: Monday and Wednesday 6:00 - 8:00 p.m.; Tuesday and Thursday 11:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.; and on Saturdays from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Office hours will be enhanced as demand requires and volunteers are available.

The phone number (509) 735-4086, will remain the same. We have had a recent change in our post office box to: P. O. Box 6675, Kennewick, WA 99336.

The Central Office is looking for volunteers to help keep the Central Office open during operating hours.

Please come and visit our new home. Call Jan P. 547-3967 (h), 554-7057 (c) if you have questions or would like to help.

Ham On Wry Reprinted with Permission from the September, 1985 Grapevine

IT'S AMAZING HOW CLOSE to the truth we alcoholics can be, without getting the point. M. E. from the Bronx, New York, submitted the following: A man stood in front of a group of alcoholics and performed an experiment. He brought out two jars, one containing pure, clear water and the other 150-proof ethyl alcohol. He placed a worm in the water; the worm swam around, then was removed. He then placed the worm in the alcohol, and the worm disintegrated. He turned to the audience and asked for the moral of the experiment. A hush came over the room. After a brief pause, a man in the rear bellowed out, "If you drink alcohol, you'll never have worms."
